MINUTES

The Marshall County Board of Supervisors met for the 2022 Primary Canvas in special session according to the posted notices at the Election Center, 107 S 1st Avenue, Marshalltown, Iowa, and via online ZOOM. Vice Chair Salasek called the meeting to order on June 14, 2022, at 9:05 a.m. and led the Pledge of Allegiance. Present: Vice Chair Steve Salasek, Member Bill Patten. Absent: Chair David Thompson.

Patten moved, second by Salasek to accept the 2022 Primary Election Canvass as presented. Motion carried 2-0.

Auditor and Recorder Benson and Jessie Chizek, Elections Staff, reported the following:

An administrative recount was held and completed on Wednesday, June 8, 2022. New equipment has been ordered to replace the current equipment, dated at 9-12 years old. Benson is hoping the new equipment is in place by November, noting supply chain issues may hold up the delivery. If not, the software on the current equipment will be rolled back to a version that does not have issues. Privacy sleeves will also be changed.

A post-election audit was held for Marshalltown Ward 1-1 on Friday, ballots were hand counted.

There were no Provisional Ballots.

Rejected: One late ballot received on June 8, postmarked June 6, 2022. Another late ballot (unsealed) received on June 9, also postmarked on June 9, 2022. The senders were notified by mail the ballots were rejected.

The following were nominated:

County Board of Supervisors: Republican: Jarret P Heil and Carol Hibbs. Democrat: Linda Jean Von Holten.

County Treasurer: Republican: Deann S Tomlinson. No Democrat candidate nominated.

County Attorney: Republican: Jordan Gaffney. Democrat: Sara Tupper

County Sheriff to fill Vacancy: Republican: Joel R Phillips. No Democrat candidate nominated.

Member of the Public Sue Blaisdell inquired about overvotes.

Adjournment. There being no further business to come before the Board, the meeting adjourned at 9:32 a.m.
